Old Business:

Ismail Shadid was present at the meeting to explain his condition of not having adequate W2 forms to present. We recommended he talk to Tom burke and to write a list of his experiences in plumbing installations and try to get a letter from one of his former employers verifying his work and description of his work assignments. He left with the understanding that we are trying to verify that he meets the criteria to take the exam. Art Monaco told him that the next scheduled meeting is to be on August 4, 2014 at 3:45 and that the tentative exam date is September 20, 2014

Since neither Tom Costello nor Tom Burke was present to provide updates to the appointment of John Hardy to the Plumbing Board, no action was taken.

There is nothing to report on regarding Luke Walz or Jason Smith's exam applications.

There is nothing to report on regarding updates to the application form for qualifications and recommended increase to $100.
