The meeting of the Examining Board of Plumbers was held on March 2, 2015 and was called to order at 3:45pm.

Member	Present	Absent
Rudy Gaspar	x
John Hardy		x
Frederick J. Meagher, Jr.	x
Art Monaco	x
Tom Costello	x
Advisory – Tom Burke		x

Old Business:

1. Rich Holden was present to discuss the status of the Johnson City Plumbing Board.
2. Minutes of meeting of February were approved.
3. Tom Burke sent copies of new application to Johnson City.
4. Tom Costello wrote a letter to Endicott and he received a response from them (see attached letter).

New Business:

1. The Board will investigate whether formal correspondence with the Village of Endicott is required for terminating the current Tri-Partite Agreement.
2. Rudy brought up the problem of unlicensed people doing plumbing jobs without a license. Tom Costello said that he would try to enforce the code to require building permits for any work.
3. Rich Holden asked when building permits or plumbing permits can be done online to make it easier to achieve a permit. Tom suggested the mayor or councilman should be contacted to get this to happen.
4. A joint meeting of Johnson City and Binghamton Plumbing boards is to be scheduled for this month. Tom and Rich to coordinate the exact date.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 6, 2015 at 3:45pm.

There being no further business before this Board, the meeting was adjourned at 4:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Art Monaco
