Thank you for sending in the form.

Generally when submitting this form, if you do not hear back from us within 30 days, the project can proceed as planned. Since this may be your first time coordinating with us, I will say that you can proceed with this project and all consultation requirements have been met. We will not be sending any other form of final response other than this email.

If you have questions regarding future projects, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Have a great weekend!

Noelle
